There are two rectangular radar screens by the village of Luzice, (P49/S86) four kilometers west-southwest of Hodonin (P 49/S 87). These screens are placed edgewise, with from 10 to 12 meters distance between them, and their location is between the road and the railway which connects Hodonin and Breclav. The two screens are from 25 to 30 meters east of the road and are just below triangulation point 187, which is located on the opposite side (western) of the road.
